Journal of Nonprofit Management

Call for papers!

Types of manuscript considered:

Original research: Articles based on original research (max. 7,000 words)

Trends: Innovative and current-trends / developments in non-profit management (2,000-3,000 words)

Good Practices: Small studies or case reports of special significance and best practice from the various sectors of the nonprofit market. (2,000-3,000 words)

Language: English or German

The Journal of Nonprofit Management (JNPM) is a multidisciplinary peer-reviewed open access journal in German and English language.

JNPM is aimed at all practitioners and researchers and those who manage non profit organisations and services. The journal publishes articles based on original research or presenting trends and good practices and addresses different disciplines, sub-disciplines and fields to contribute to the discussion with basic articles, concepts and practical contributions.

The JNPM contributes to the discussion in the form of basic articles, concepts and practical contributions.

Papers submitted to JNPM are carefully reviewed in the first instance by the Editorial Board. Papers that do not meet editorial needs; are methodically flawed; or lack originality will be rejected. Papers which pass the Editorial review will be sent out to peer-review.

For issue 1/23, the Editorial Board of the Journal of Nonprofit Management invites submissions that makes a strong theoretical or empirical contribution to the topic:

Submission deadline 31.03.2023

Multiple crises in the 21st century – How do NPOs navigate a new normal?

Please send your manuscript to jnpm-redaktion@hs-osnabrueck.de.

The issue of the journal is expected to be published in summer 2023.

Please refer to the formatting rules on the website.

For more information, please visit our website at https://www.hs-osnabrueck.de/open-access-journals/jnpm-en