

Internship Program at Osnabrück University of Applied Sciences

Description of lab or research project

	Working Group on Agro-Ecology and Environmentally Friendly Land Management
Head of working group	Prof. Dr. Dieter Trautz Faculty of Agricultural Sciences and Landscape Architecture Oldenburger Landstr. 24, D-49090 Osnabrück E-Mail: d.trautz@hs-osnabrueck.de Phone.: +49-541-969 5058
Title of Project	Organic Potato Research
Abstract	This project is focused on improving the environmentally friendly production of organic potatoes, with a specific focus on the topics of irrigation, cut and carry and special varieties
Tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Measurement of tuber development• Rating of diseases (plants and tubers)• Measurement of yield
Requirements	Basic skills in plant production/horticulture.
Language Skills	English: fluent German: basic knowledge useful, but not required
Duration and time period	3 – 6 months in either the summer semester (March – August) or the winter semester (September – February) Specific dates and duration to be agreed upon
Further information	