

Landscape Engineering: Development of a Safety Goal

Internship in Landscape Architecture at the Osnabrueck University of Applied Sciences

Supervisor	Prof. Martin Thieme-Hack
Project	Development of a stable and easy to transport, free-standing safety goal for ball games
Tasks	Depending on your interests and skills different approaches are possible: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Stability testing of mobile soccer goals</li><li>- Evaluation of user surveys</li><li>- Development of safety requirements for soccer goals</li><li>-</li></ul>
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Engineering or landscape engineering students on undergraduate or graduate level</li><li>- Basic knowledge of sports field construction is desirable but not a must</li></ul>
Language Skills	English (German would be helpful but is not necessary)
Duration	3-6 months
Possible Beginning	Feb 15 deadline: 3 – 6 month internship between September and February; Oct. 1 deadline: 3 – 6 month internship between March and August
Credits	According to learning agreement