<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Online Course Title</th>
<th>Legal Aspects in International Business</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Technical Requirements | - Fully functional device (laptop, tablet, PC or smart phone)
- Stable internet connection
- Software: Zoom (video/audio)

Recommended hardware: external headset for better sound quality |
| Course Level & Target Group | Undergraduate students, second stage of study
The participation requires a higher intermediate or advanced level of English (minimum B1, preferably B2, up to C2) according to the Common European Reference Framework for Languages. |
| Course Language | This class is being taught in English. |
| ECTS | 5 ECTS |
| Instructor | Team teaching:
Prof. Dr. Federico Ferretti
Prof. Dr. Holger Sutschet |

Course Description

INTRODUCTION
1. Introduction to legal environment of International Trade. Sources of Law. Internationalization and Harmonization.

LEGAL RULES (Sales, Transport, Finance):
2. International Sales Contracts – Perspectives from different legal systems
6. International Finance. Letter of credit. UCP 600
ENFORCEMENT:

SECURING LEARNING OUTCOMES

Learning outcomes: students who have successfully completed this module will be able to identify the law applicable to international contracts as well as the international forum. They will be able to identify and resolve legal issues arising from international sales, transport and finance contracts under different legal regimes. They will appreciate the differences between state court proceedings and arbitration and have a good understanding of international rules in regard to the latter. Teaching: collaborative teaching, lectures, seminars, student presentations, group work Assessment: 50% presentation, 50% coursework

Textbooks

Assessment
50% presentation, 50% coursework